time and attendance

Your benefits

- You reduce your personnel management costs.

The simplified management of work times and the accelerated personnel scheduling save time and money. cronetwork® time and attendance provides optimal support for highly automated personnel accounting.

- You profit from decentralization.

Partly automatic support of jobflows reduces the effort for continuous time management in departments to a minimum. This assures that data are very up to date.

- You profit from flexible arrangement of work times.

cronetwork® enables simple arrangement of flexible work time models. This lets you meet company requirements and also consider employee requests. Work assignment and sales status can thus be synchronized.

- You increase your company's efficiency through integration.

Because cronetwork® time and attendance can be connected with cronetwork® scheduling board, you have the personnel resources available for production planning. Integration with the modules plant data and incentive pay enables automatic utilization of common base data and logic for time computation and accounting.

- You motivate employees with information.

Displaying individual personal information on the terminal raises user acceptance and allows employees to control options.

- You vest in high acceptance by your employees.

Graphical support without the need to frequently switch masks and context-sensitive jumps to editing masks assure simple operation. All functions relevant for time management are depicted on a single calendar.
